

E.Q. what are essential parts of a story?

What is theme/
Central idea?

- the message about life or human nature
- common themes include:
  - circle of life
  - desire to escape
  - good vs. bad

Who are the characters?

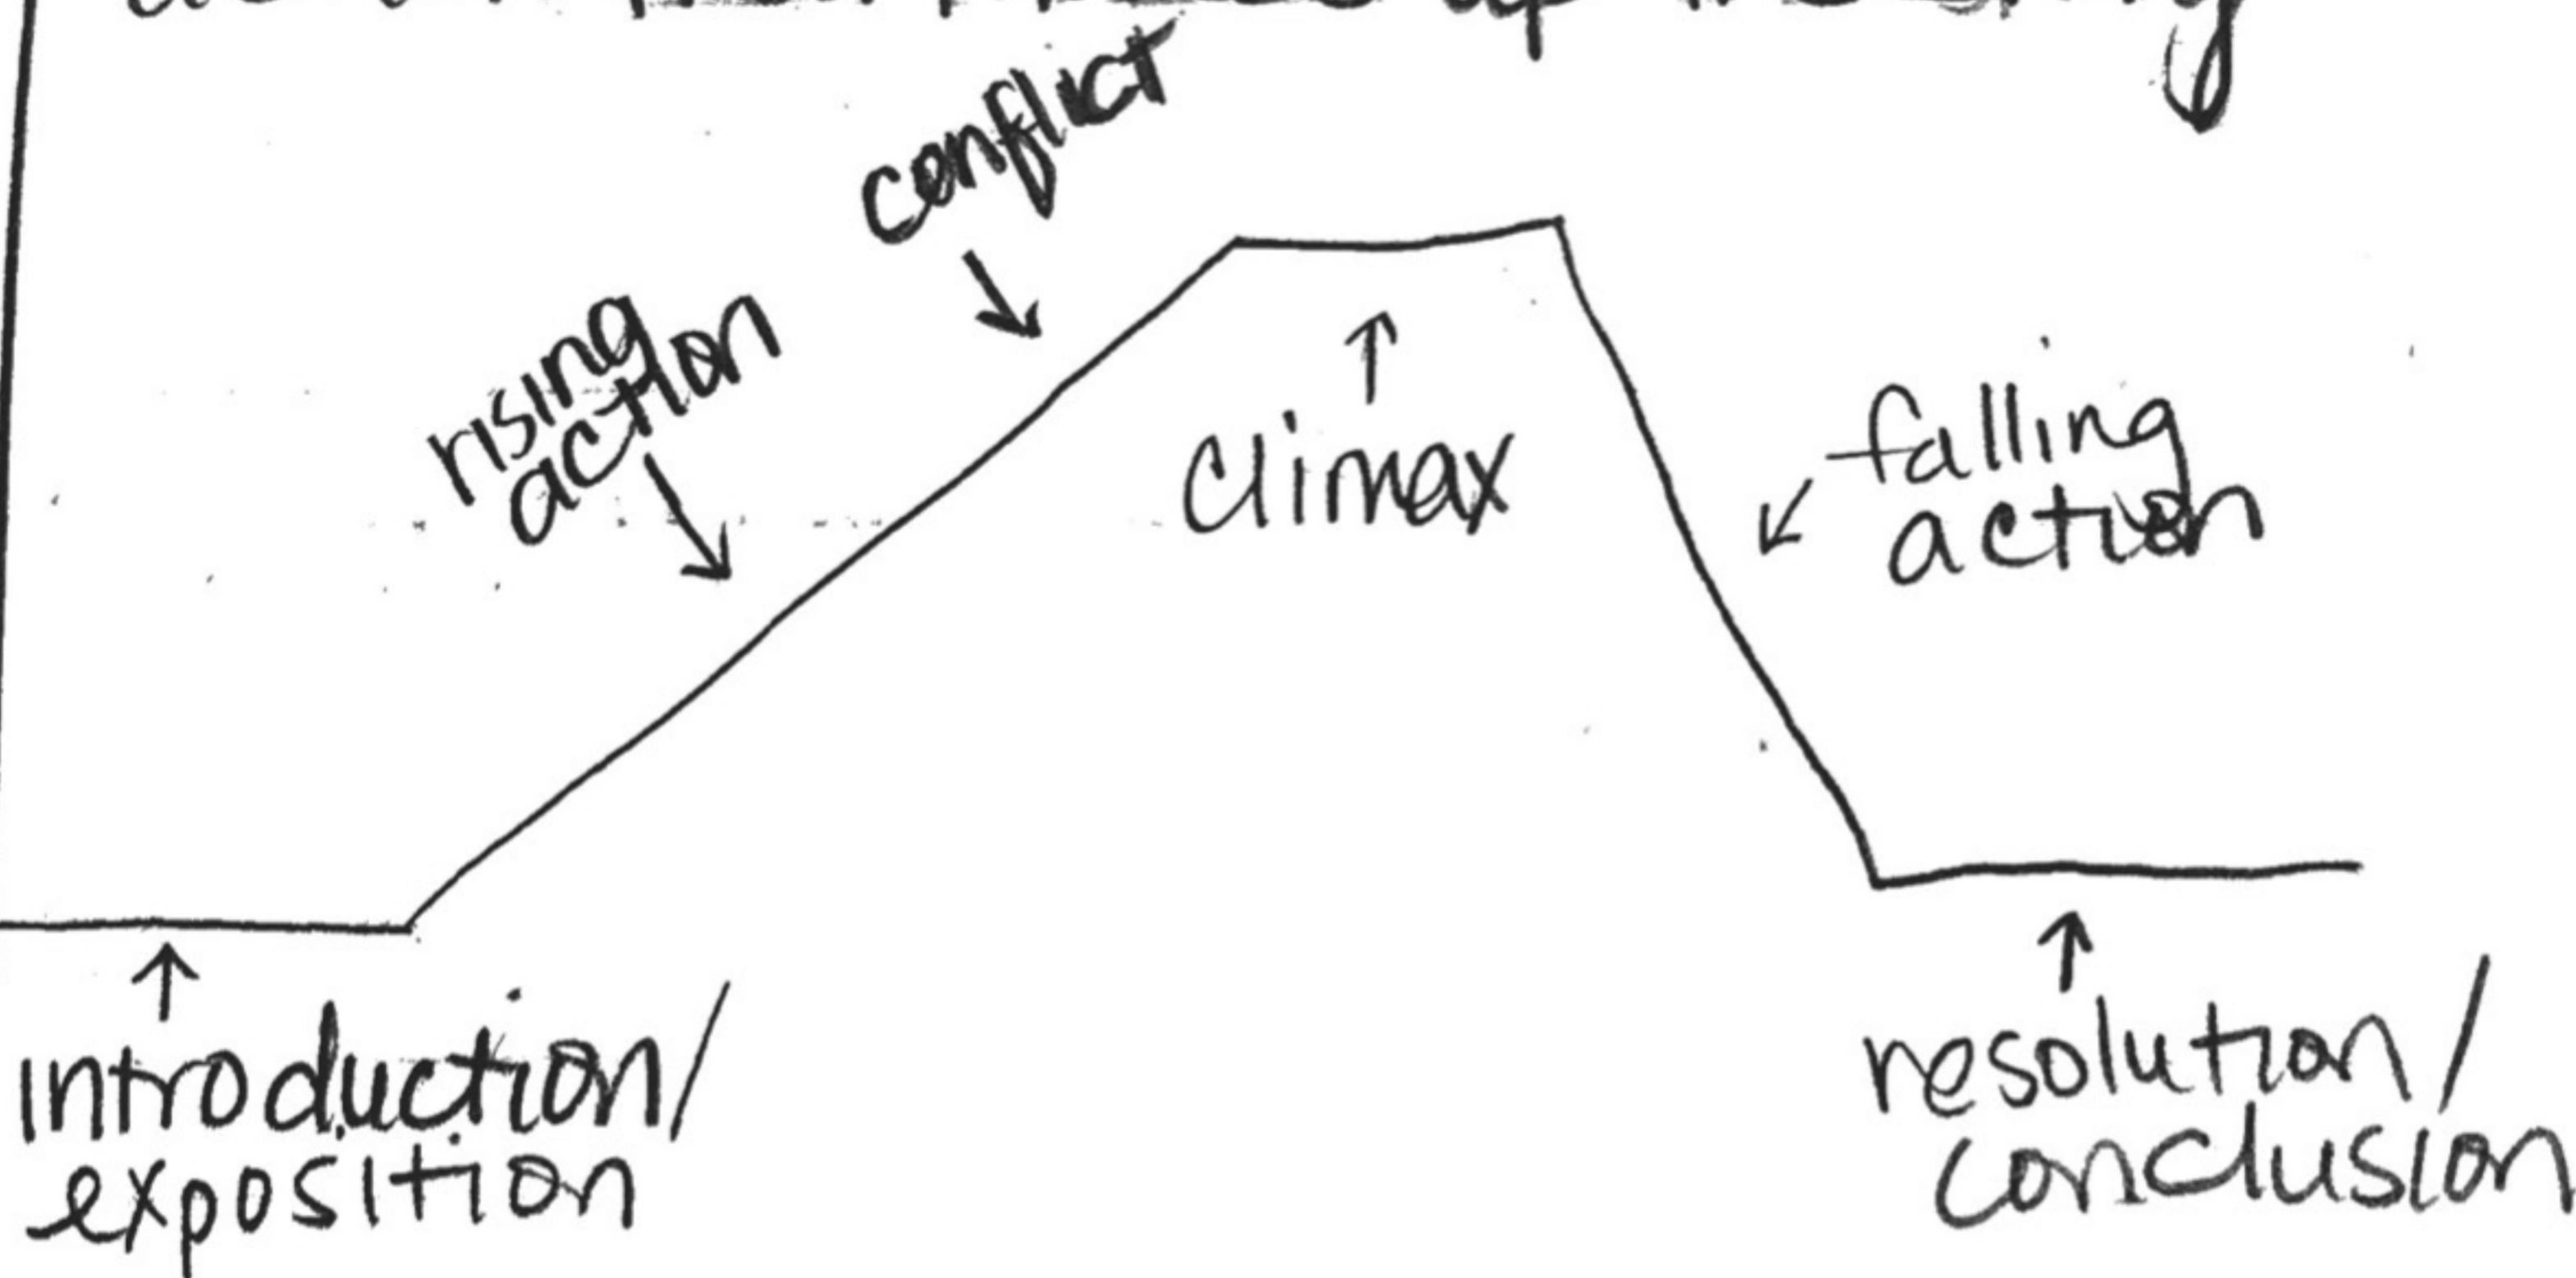

- person or animal in the story
- protagonist: main character, good or heroic type
- antagonist: person or force that works against the hero

What is setting?

- place and time the story takes place

What is plot?

- action that makes up the story

Summary

E.Q. what are the types of conflict in literature?

7

Person
vs.
Person

a problem between characters
EX:

Person
vs.
Self

a problem within the character's mind
EX:

Person
vs Society

a problem between a character
and society, school, law or tradition
EX: Jasmine vs. tradition
in Aladdin

Person:
vs.
nature

a problem between a character and
some element of nature
EX:

In my book _____ the conflict type is...

EQ. What are literary devices?
(part 1)

8

literary device	specific language techniques an author uses
Hyperbole	exaggerated language, to the extreme (Ex: "I am so hungry I could eat a horse!")
Alliteration	repetition of beginning consonant sounds (Ex: deep, dark dungeon)
Allusion	reference to a well known person or place (Ex: Hot as Hades)
Onomatopoeia	word whose sound makes you think of its meaning (Ex: buzz, pow)
Simile	comparing 2 things using "like" or "as".
Metaphor	compares 2 things without a comparison word ("is")
Personification	giving life-like characteristics to non-living things

practice

- 1.
- 2.
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6
- 7
- 8

- 9
- 10
- 11
- 12
- 13
- 14